Execution Only Disclosure

This variation to your mortgage contract will be completed on an execution only basis, this means that you are making all the decisions about the suitability of the mortgage for yourself and you will not receive any advice from Nationwide.

By proceeding on an execution only basis you accept the following conditions:

- You will not receive any advice and/or a personal recommendation from Nationwide as to whether the mortgage meets your specific requirements.
- Nationwide will not be obliged to and will not assess the suitability of this mortgage to your individual needs and circumstances.
- You are waiving any protections that the Financial Conduct Authority’s regulations on mortgage suitability would bring to you.

By accepting these conditions, you confirm that you understand and accept the above conditions and that you are making an informed decision to proceed without advice.

Please also note that if you have previously spoken to us about this mortgage variation and subsequently decide to proceed with your own choice, accepting this disclosure will invalidate any previous advice given.

I/we (all applicants) understand and accept this declaration and wish to proceed on an execution only basis.
